Apart from following the traditional of modern conciseness and elegance, LUXIN double suite hotel series mixes the oriental charms into the concise western modern designs. The unique craftwork of combining solid wooden frame, soft elastic sponges and independent springs together demonstrates the integral suave and smooth feeling, which is featured by the linear design through the whole concise surface of bed. This series not only minimize the production cost, but also explore the particular designs by different materials, all of which just cater to the concept of no-season hotel.
